RE: Your message re viewing of COJA video

Thank you for checking back! Yes, please go to the Supreme Court clerk's office on the first floor and ask for Charles Cahoon. He will have the DVD for you to view. He is expecting you at 11am tomorrow.

Thank you so much for all your efforts to try to accommodate me. I am so sorry to have moved this apt so many times. I don't know why they kept moving this hearing date and switching judges.

I'll get back to you tomorrow on that. Waiting for word back on whether I can secure the room and a person to cover for me. Thank you

Hello Sharon:
I got your message about needing to cancel for tomorrow but I did not catch the days that you are requesting to reschedule to. I mentioned over the phone last week that I am out of the office this Wednesday thru Friday and there isn't anyone who can be present for your viewing on either Thursday or Friday. Please let me know if there is a time on Wednesday that you can come by to view the video. There is some possibility that a viewing can work that day. At this point I can't promise anything but if you give me a time, I will try to work something out. Please advise.
Thank you,
AhMoi
